

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

I am pleased to extend greetings to your entire school as you gather to congratulate the winners of the President's Education Award.

Education is a lifelong pursuit, and offers countless rewards for those who strive for knowledge and work hard to achieve success. By setting high standards for yourself, by making the most of your educational opportunities, and by diligently working to reach your goals, you are well on your way toward realizing those rewards.

I commend you for your academic and civic achievements and hope you will continue to pursue your educational goals. Your community and your country are counting on you.

Melania joins me in wishing you continued success, as we share the pride of your parents, teachers, and friends.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be the name of the President, written in a cursive style.
